

On the Wings of Self-Esteem

A Companion for Personal Transformation

by Dr. Louise Hart with Kristen Caven

"This is a wonderful book! It contains timeless insights, deep psychological truths presented in a simple yet profound way, and practical exercises you can begin to do today to create the quality of life you desire and deserve. If everyone read this book and did the recommended exercises, half of all the pain and suffering we currently experience would disappear."

—Jack Canfield, author of Chicken Soup for the Soul

In the natural order of things, earth-bound caterpillars transform into soaring butterflies. Louise Hart's second book, On the Wings of Self-Esteem addresses the reverse metamorphosis in human beings—born as beautiful, frail creatures, we are forced by life's hardships to become caterpillars. As we grow older, this positive force becomes buried. On the Wings of Self-Esteem is a guide to personal transformation. Written in a lyrical and accessible voice, it compiles the best information available on subjects central to self-esteem and wellness. The short chapters and exercises guide the reader through the many tiny shifts in thoughts and action that are required for an upward spiral to begin toward lightness, toward a transcendent higher experience of life, toward soaring.

"Louise Hart guides us in a self-empowering process to break through the cocoons that keep us victims of powerlessness, helping us to discover the wind for transformation beneath our wings." —Judith Cauley, Associate Superintendent, Archdiocese of Denver
